

Our Lady of Gethsemani

TELEGRAPH: } NEW HAVEN. }
TELEPHONE: } } Ky.
RAILROAD STA: GETHSEMANE.

J. M. J. B. C.

TRAPPIST P. O., KY. June 23rd, 1944.

Mrs. T. Boone Peake,
New Haven, Ky.

My dear Mrs. Peake:-

I am sorry that your good letter has always escaped me when I wished to answer yours of the 6th. We have taken care of the Masses at once when your good letter arrived, but the acknowledgment cannot always be so prompt as I should like.

You are asked to make great sacrifices for Country and Liberty. God is keeping the reward for you and your dear children in His own hands. You will have it before all the world on the day of reckoning. Rest assured that Hubert has our prayers,- in company with Fred, and Richard will be just another intention for the prayers of the Community from this time forward.

I hope that all goes well at home, and that the heat does not burden you too much. Thank God we can offer some sacrifices for the benefit of our dear ones at the front.!

Very sincerely yours in the Sacred Heart of Jesus,

Frederic W. Duane
Abbot. ac fd